

Mexico Bible Institute Dorm

Problem The leadership at the Mexico Bible Institute emphasizes on discipleship. Their desire is that students and staff share life together and work together.

Solution To aid in relationship building they desire to construct a dorm building with three floors and a total square footage of 3,200. The completed building will provide housing and classroom facilities for staff and students giving them the daily interaction needed for effective discipleship.

Benefit Your investment in this project will help train Latin American believers to reach tribal groups with the Gospel message in areas often inaccessible to foreign missionaries.

Total Cost $96,000

The completed building will provide housing and classroom facilities for staff and students giving them the daily interaction needed for effective discipleship.
