

Wamena Support Base

Center Will Help Expand the Reach of the Gospel in Papua

Problem It is imperative that we have a central area where our aircraft can fly to remote tribal villages. Missionaries in remote areas need to order groceries and supplies. They also need to fly out of the tribe for medical emergencies and other needs.

Solution A base in Wamena will save more than $900 on every flight for many of our missionaries. Eight houses, a utility vehicle and a storage area are needed to open the station. This will make flights much more affordable for missionaries.

Benefit Your investment will allow missionaries to afford to use the flight program, which will allow them to spend more time reaching tribal people with the Gospel. It will also enable us to reach out to other people groups, such as the Muyus, the North Asmats, the Ndugas, the Wanas, the Turus, the Nakais and several others.

Total Cost $490,550
